

Kusch+Co prioritises the delivery to healthcare facilities

Within a few days after the order is placed, Kusch+Co delivers the seating of their series 2200 ¡Hola! and the tables of series 3050 to healthcare facilities.

Following the outbreak of the coronavirus, hospitals and other healthcare facilities are scrambling to create new intensive care wards and quarantine stations in the shortest possible time. Swiftness and uncomplicated handling now have top priority. In order to be of assistance, Kusch+Co offers to customers in the market sector Health the possibility to get the tried-and-tested seating series 2200 ¡Hola! as well as the table series 3050 within a few days.

Kusch+Co's own hygiene expert, Ingo Bandurski, underlines the importance of implementing the hygiene requirements for medical wards as laid down in the Infection Protection Act in other environments as well, if these are temporarily used by many persons: "Practically speaking, this applies to every canteen, staff restaurant, event gastronomy, or open-space offices with hot desking: these environments are shared by a high number of users, and therefore should be furnished with hygienic furniture, as they otherwise entail a certain risk potential," recommends the expert.

Through the QR code on each product label, each customer, user, hygiene officer, cleaner and facility manager has quick access to the cleaning instructions, and knows what products can be used and how to apply them. Thanks to their patented brand kuschmed® Hygienic-Line, Kusch+Co boasts a high level of expertise in the field of hygiene geared towards seating. They are familiar with hygienic products, materials, finishes and the correct labeling. On top of this, they make sure to stay up to date with the latest developments. "We take this topic very seriously, and our responsibility goes beyond the production and sales of furniture to the Care
